9th Annual American Health Care Congress
November 12-13, 2012 | Anaheim, CA, USA

The 9th Annual American Health Care Congress (AHCC) [2] is an intensive, two-day educational and networking forum, designed for senior health care executives and key decision makers from the nation's leading hospitals, health systems, health plans and medical groups focused on driving innovation, collaboration and quality and cost improvements post-reform. The agenda is dedicated to bringing the health care community together to discuss strategies to decrease the cost of care, drive delivery innovation, develop aligned incentives, redesign effective operations and leverage health care IT. By convening over 400 diverse thought leaders, AHCC identifies innovative delivery models and integration strategies to improve the overall delivery of health care and the critical steps to adapt our health system to operate more efficiently post health reform.

Early Bird ends this week! Register early and save up to $600 by August 31 at http://www.giiconference.com/woco224414-2012/ [2]
