About Us:

WHO WE ARE

AZCO Corporation established in 1983, manufactures simple to use reliable feeding, cutting, inserting and dispensing units specially designed for the converting, packaging, food and medical industries. We specialize in providing solutions for complex and unique custom applications. Our experience has provided us valuable insight and the ability to identify the exact, field-proven techniques and methods best suited for each operation.

WHAT WE DO

Our feeding and cutting units for flexible material include test strip cutters, tubing cutters, precision punches, slitters, sheeters, cut-to-length units, web cutting machinery, knife assemblies, and unwind/rewind and adjustable stands. A unique assortment of inserting and dispensing equipment includes desiccant dispensers and pad placers. Our standard units are in stock and can be customized to fit specific requirements.
