

RehabCare Group senior VP resigns

Published on Medical Design Technology (<http://www.mdtmag.com>)

RehabCare Group senior VP resigns

The Associated Press

Rehabilitation services RehabCare Group Inc. said Thursday that Kevin Gross, senior vice president of hospital operations, will resign for another job.

Gross will take the position of president of the Oklahoma Division of Ardent Health Services, a role he held prior to his tenures at Universal Health Services and RehabCare.

The RehabCare resignation is effective June 4.

Brock Hardaway, currently Triumph president and chief operating officer, has been promoted to RehabCare executive vice president. RehabCare completed its $570 million acquisition of Triumph Healthcare, a long-term acute care hospital operator, in November.

Shares of RehabCare rose 56 cents to close at $29.43.

Source URL (retrieved on 01/31/2015 - 6:56pm):

<http://www.mdtmag.com/news/2010/05/rehabcare-group-senior-vp-resigns>