

IPC The Hospitalist says it bought Conn. practice

The Associated Press

NORTH HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (AP) — IPC The Hospitalist Co., which provides in-hospital medical services, said Wednesday it acquired a practice based in Bristol, Conn., to boost its presence in the New England market.

Financial terms weren't disclosed.

Hospital Internists of Bristol LLC sees around 18,000 patients per year, the company said. The owner, Elizabeth Tillman, will remain with the group.
