

CDRH Explains Itself as Ethicon Prepares to Defend Its Sedasys

As Johnson & Johnson (J&J) subsidiary Ethicon Endo-Surgery prepares to defend its computer-assisted personalized sedation system before an independent advisory panel convened by FDA Commissioner Margaret Hamburg, CDRH is finally explaining why it rejected the Sedasys device in the first place.

SOURCE [1]

Source URL (retrieved on 01/28/2015 - 11:57pm):

<http://www.mdtmag.com/news/2010/12/cdrh-explains-itself-ethicon-prepares-defend-its-sedasys>

Links:

[1]

<http://www.fdanews.com/newsletter/article?articleId=132617&issueId=14291>