Endologix agrees to pay $5 million to settle a patent infringement lawsuit filed against it by Cook Medical over stent grafts for abdominal aortic aneurysms.

Endologix [1] (NSDQ:ELGX [2]) agreed to pay Cook Medical [3] $5 million to settle a patent infringement lawsuit over stent graft technology.

Cook filed the original lawsuit in October 2009, accusing Endologix of violating a pair of its stent graft patents. The case was slated to go to trial this month.

Endologix admitted no liability in the settlement.
