

Clinipace Worldwide's Ran Frenkel Promoted to Managing Director, EMEA

The Associated Press

MORRISVILLE, N.C.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Dec 13, 2012--Clinipace Worldwide, a global digital contract research organization (dCRO), today announced company executive, Ran Frenkel, RPh, Vice President, International Business Development, will take on additional responsibility as the Managing Director, EMEA. Country managers in the region will report directly to Frenkel in his new role.

Frenkel joined the Clinipace Worldwide team in May 2011 through the company's acquisition of Swiss-based PFC Pharma Focus (PFC). He has served the company for over seven years, helping to establish the Israel office, and is now poised to lead EMEA operations from the European headquarters in Zurich.

"Ran has consistently demonstrated that he understands and supports our corporate vision of driving innovation in clinical research through a technology-amplified service platform," said Jeff Williams, CEO, Clinipace Worldwide. "Ran is committed to extending our unique approach to service delivery throughout EMEA, and I'm confident he will continue to lead our growth in the region." Original PFC founders, Kurt Pfister, PhD, CEO, European Operations, and Kathryn Voegeli, PhD, COO, European Operations, are stepping down from day-to-day management roles. They will remain with Clinipace Worldwide through 2013 in an advisory capacity and will remain on the Board of Directors of Clinipace AG (the company's European entity).

"Clinipace is proud of the leadership demonstrated by both Kurt and Kathryn in growing the company's presence and foothold in EMEA," said Williams. "They helped build a talented team of experts, and as a combined company for the past two years, our common goals have been easily achieved."
