IRVINE, Calif., Dec. 10, 2012 /PRNewswire/ -- Kareo [1], Inc., the cloud-based medical office software provider for small practices, announced today that it has been selected as one of The Orange County Register's Top Workplaces based on employee feedback in a survey of hundreds of leading companies in Orange County.

"We are honored to be named as a Top Workplace in Orange County," said Dan Rodrigues, CEO and Founder of Kareo. "We believe that happy employees build the best companies and earn the most satisfied customers, and that's why we work so hard to create a great work environment and positive culture at Kareo."

Kareo is focused on building the most productive, imaginative, and fun-loving team in the healthcare technology industry. Employees come from diverse industries and backgrounds because the company is looking for the best ideas and perspectives to help bring new innovation to the healthcare industry. The company is aggressively recruiting the best and brightest in Orange County and has plans to hire more than 100 people during 2013 in key areas including product development, engineering, customer service and sales. Current employment opportunities are posted on Kareo's career page [2] where applicants will also find out about the award winning Kareo culture.

"There are a lot of reasons why people love working at Kareo and join our team," said Taryn Tennant, Senior Manager of Human Resources. "We are experiencing phenomenal growth, which makes for some exciting times, but just as important, our culture, our actions, and all that we do truly reflect our values."

The Orange County Register published the complete list of Top Workplaces on Friday, December 7. The Top Workplaces were determined based solely on employee feedback. The survey was conducted by WorkplaceDynamics, LLP, a leading research f
