Non-GAAP operating profit was $7.0 million in the fourth quarter of 2012, compared to $7.1 million in the same period in 2011. The acquisition of SmartPill assets negatively impacted gross and operating profit. Cash provided by operating activities in the fourth quarter and in fiscal year 2012 was $11.0 million and $27.8 million, respectively. Cash and cash equivalents, short-term investments and marketable securities on December 31, 2012 totaled $124.1 million.

"We are pleased to have delivered record net income, both on a GAAP and non-GAAP-basis in 2012. We achieved a solid six percent increase in revenues in the Americas region. Revenues in the rest of the world were impacted by the continuing economic weakness in Europe, delays caused by a change in our Japanese commercial strategy and a shortfall in revenues in China. We expect 2013 to be a pivotal year for Given Imaging and our goal is to return to double-digit revenue growth as we expand the market for our comprehensive line of devices to visualize, detect, and monitor disorders in the digestive tract and introduce new, innovative products, including our next-generation capsule endoscope for the small bowel, PillCam SB3. We plan to launch PillCam SB3 in Europe this quarter and in the U.S. later this year," said Homi Shamir, president and CEO, Given Imaging.
