

Premier healthcare alliance awards new radiation treatment system contract to member hospital

Mass Device

Hospital group purchasing organization Premier healthcare alliance agreed on a contract for a new radiation treatment planning system.

Group purchasing organization Premier inked a contract with Philips Healthcare [1] (NYSE:PHG [2]) for radiation treatment planning.

The new team-based radiation treatment program was available to the Philips Healthcare network on Jan. 1, but Premier made the announcement [3] this month. This system is limited to acute care and continuum care members of Premier.

In November 2012, Premier signed contracts with Teleflex [4] for endotracheal surgical products and awarded 2 contracts [5] for pediatric specialty products to of York, Pa.-based Clinton Industries and Pedia Pals of Minneapolis.

Source URL (retrieved on 01/31/2015 - 12:06pm):

http://www.mdtmag.com/news/2013/02/premier-healthcare-alliance-awards-new-radiation-treatment-system-contract-member-hospital?qt-most_popular=0

Links:

[1] <http://www.massdevice.com/company/philips-healthcare>

[2] <http://www.google.com/finance?q=phg>

[3] <http://www.businesswire.com/news/home/20130215005004/en/Hospitals-Healthcare-Providers-Benefit-Premier-Agreement-Radiation>

[4] <http://www.massdevice.com/news/gpos-premier-signs-new-contracts-with-teleflex>

[5] <http://www.massdevice.com/news/gpos-novation-and-premier-ink-new-deals?page=2>