St. Jude Medical touts new findings from its failed RESPECT trial, reporting that the Amplatzer PFO closure device demonstrated benefits over drug therapy alone.

Medical device giant St. Jude Medical [1] (NYSE:STJ [2]) resurrected data from its failed RESPECT study, touting additional analyses and benefits of its Amplatzer patent foramen ovale closure device.

St. Jude took a hit last year when the RESPECT trial failed to meet its clinical endpoints, but the company wasn't about to stop there.
