

Citron puts Intuitive Surgical on blast over adverse events

Mass Device

Intuitive Surgical defends its adverse event reports, which analysts at Citron Group call a 'gross misuse of statistical data.'

The battle between surgical devices maker Intuitive Surgical [1] (NSDQ:ISRG [2]) and analysts at Citron Group continues to heat up, with harsh words from one and a stern defense from the other.

Citron Group today issued an open letter to Intuitive Surgical, accusing the company of misusing FDA data to falsely paint a picture of declining adverse events associated with the da Vinci surgical robot.
