

Lifter System

D-M-E doubles undercut capability in plastic molds with the VectorForm[®] Lifter System. An innovation of Takao Injection Mold Engineering, the innovative lifter system offers design flexibility to OEMs and mold designers. The VectorForm allows application designers to incorporate undercuts into their designs that are twice as deep as previously possible. Alternatively, mold designers can cut their ejector stroke in half while maintaining existing undercut geometries.

Source URL (retrieved on 01/26/2015 - 8:17pm):

http://www.mdtmag.com/product-releases/2003/12/lifter-system?qt-most_popular=0