

Node Computer

This Node computer, the Microbox-5824 is designed to meet the demands of mission critical applications requiring high performance and reliable operation for factory automation, facility monitoring, machine automation, and environmental monitoring. The unit features a compact size, low-power consumption, and is wall-mountable. It is equipped with a 3.5 in. embedded board, which incorporates a NS Geode GX1-300 MHz processor and CS 5530 chipset. System memory for the unit is comprised of one 144-pin SO-DIMM socket with a maximum capacity of 128 MB of memory.

Source URL (retrieved on 01/28/2015 - 11:54am):

http://www.mdtmag.com/product-releases/2004/02/node-computer?qt-most_popular=0