

Shielding Gaskets

This series of low compression-set silicone sponge core D-connector shields is available for grounding and RFI Shielding. The highly conductive outer layer is co-extruded and provides very low contact resistance over a resilient inner sponge core. Fits common 9 through 50 pin layouts, rear or front mount versatility with optional adhesive assembly strips. Customs available.

Source URL (retrieved on 01/27/2015 - 7:03pm):

http://www.mdtmag.com/product-releases/2004/03/shielding-gaskets?qt-recent_content=0&qt-video_of_the_day=0