

Macroscope

Offering a high level of accuracy, comfort, and convenience is the Leica FS C comparison microscope for real time comparison, quality control, and medical device inspection. It features an entirely new comparison bridge design, which integrates a tilting binocular tube to accommodate users of all statures and to facilitate easy reach and a natural body position. Automation and motorization allow synchronous control of both stages, as well as remote positioning of stage and focus controls for ultimate comfort.

Source URL (retrieved on 01/29/2015 - 5:31pm):

<http://www.mdtmag.com/product-releases/2004/04/macroscope>