

Threaded Inserts

Patented DeltaForm® threaded inserts for plastics introduce an economic alternative to traditional inserts or thread-forming screws in high-volume fastening applications. They can provide reliable and reusable threads at half the price of standard metal inserts and offer twice the torque-out strength of thread-forming screws without the associated cross-threading risks during installation. The manufacturing process for these inserts and their unique design features contribute to economies and performance for users.

Source URL (retrieved on 03/06/2015 - 11:05am):

<http://www.mdtmag.com/product-releases/2004/04/threaded-inserts>