

Silicone-to-Plastic Molding

Select-Hesive LIMS are offered for silicone-to-plastic molding and eliminate costly assembly steps by allowing molders to utilize 2-shot or insert overmolding processes. The results are improved part quality and consistency, which allows for increased productivity and cost savings. The LIMS bond aggressively to thermoplastic substrates without primers or pre-treatment. Products are available in a full range of durometers that are USP Class VI compliant.

Source URL (retrieved on 01/28/2015 - 1:31pm):

<http://www.mdtmag.com/product-releases/2006/07/silicone-plastic-molding>