

Google Glass Used to Broadcast Surgical Procedure

The Ohio State University Wexner Medical Center

During this procedure at the medical center's University East facility, Dr. Christopher Kaeding wore the device as he performed ACL surgery on Paula Kobalka, 47, from Westerville, Ohio, who hurt her knee playing softball. As he performed her operation at a facility on the east side of Columbus, Google Glass showed his vantage point via the internet to audiences miles away.

Click here to read the full story. [1]

Source URL (retrieved on 01/31/2015 - 6:44pm):

<http://www.mdtmag.com/videos/2013/08/google-glass-used-broadcast-surgical-procedure>

Links:

[1] <http://www.mdtmag.com/news/2013/08/first-us-surgery-transmitted-live-google-glass>